BSYO Flash Mob — A million hits?

A surprise performance by the Youth Orchestra at the Savannah-Hilton Head International Airport November 23rd pleased travelers heading out for Thanksgiving week. Local media filmed the show, and it can now be viewed on YouTube. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t\_Y6cSVA12U

A flash performance looks impromptu, but Fred and the musicians, their families, and the board members who staged the action can testify to how much planning and care goes into making it as seamless as possible.

2013 Holiday Concert "Fa LaLaLaLa" pleases all

Maestro Devyatkin once more led our Orchestra's annual seasonal event to a rousing finale at each performance December 4th and 8th. Handel, Vivaldi's strings (with soloists from the Youth Orchestra) and Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker filled the hearts of classical Christmas lovers. Then, orchestral renditions of popular carols and other holiday music were followed by our traditional sing-a-long.

Looking toward 2014 BSO Concerts

Plan to enjoy our February 27 and March 2 concerts with a new friend, concertmaster and acting music director of the Charleston Symphony Orchestra, Yuri Bekker. He will join our Orchestra's musicians in Beethoven's "Violin Concerto" and his "Pastoral" 6th Symphony in F. This will be one for the next book, a true "Beethoven Bash."

Then, by popular demand, baritone Roger Moss will return to our stage for the last concert of the season, May 1 and 4. With an emphasis on "Amour, Amour...," the music is arranged by our own Bill Baker.
