Holiday Pops Concert

Welcome the holidays with Beaufort Symphony Orchestra's "Holiday at the Pops" musical magic on December 4 and 7 at Sea Island Presbyterian Church.

"The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" opens the festivities with arm-swinging melody and strutting rhythm of marching toys. Conductor Leopold Stokowski and arranger Percy Grainger produced a full orchestra version of "Shepherd's Hey," a traditional English folk song. Composer Vaughn Williams arranged some of the most popular Christmas carols in a holiday medley that will stir up your holiday spirits! And the classic poem "Twas the Night Before Christmas," set to music by master orchestrator Bill Holcombe, will be narrated by special guest, Pastor Steve Keeler.

After intermission, the Beaufort Symphony Orchestra Strings will perform Johann Sebastian Bach's masterpiece, "Brandenburg Concerto No. 3 in G Major. Following Bach will be Bill Holcombe's "Christmas Jazz Suite" and the sizzling "Wizards in Winter" as performed by the Trans-Siberian Orchestra.

Our New Venue: A Success!

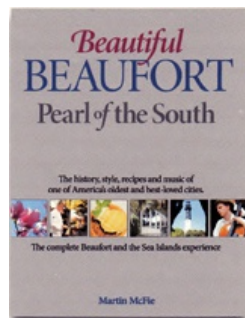

If you didn't hear from your friends who attended the October season opening concerts at the Sea Island Presbyterian Church on Lady's Island Drive, our new venue pleased everyone.

Both Thursday and Sunday concerts demonstrated the superb acoustics and intimate ambiance Maestro Devyatkin had predicted. We hope to see you there for Holiday Pops!
